SUMMER RAIN.

The mountain streams are silent,
Or whisper faint and low,
The earth is grateful to the dews
For moisture which the clouds refuse;
Blow, West wind, blow!
And fill, O gentle Rain!

Awake the music of the bowers,
Unfold the beauty of the flowers;
The corn-fields long to hear thy voice,
And woods and orchards will rejoice
To see the, gentle Rain!

It comes! The gushing wealth descends!
Hark! how it patters on the leaves!
Hark! how it drops from cottage eaves!
The pasture and the clouds are friends;
Drop gentle, gentle Rain!

The fainting corn-stalk lifts its head,
The grass grows greener at thy tread,
The woods are musical again:
And from the hill-side springing,
Down comes the torrent singing,
With grateful gesture in accord,
A full-toned anthem to the Lord,
To thank him for the Rain.

Select Miscellany.

A FRENCH WILL STORY.

'Is she dead, then?'

'Yes, madam,' replied a little gentleman in a brown coat and short breeches.

'And her will?'

'It is going to be opened here immediately by her solicitor.'

'It must be supposed so; we have claims.'

'Who is that miserably dressed personage who intrudes herself here?'

'Oh, she,' said the little man, sneering, 'she won't have much in the will; she is sister to the deceased.'

'What, that Anne, who wedded in 1812 a man of nothing—an officer.'

'Precisely so.'

'She must have no small amount of impudence to present herself here, before a respectable family.'

'The more so as sister Egerie, of noble birth, had never forgiven her for that mesalliance.'

Anne moved, at this time, across the room in which the family of the deceased were assembled. She was pale; her fine eyes were filled with tears, and her face was furrowed by care with precocious wrinkles.

'What do you come for?' said, with great hautiness, Madame de Villeboys, the lady who a moment before had been interrogating the little man who inherrited with her.

'Madame,' the poor lady replied, with humility, 'I do not come here to claim a part of what does not belong to me; I come solely to see M. Dubois, my poor sister's solicitor, to inquire if she spoke to me at her last hour.'

'What! do you think people busy themselves about you?' arrogantly observed Madame de Villeboys, 'the disgrace of a great house—you, who wedded a man of nothing, a soldier of Bonaparte!'

'Madam, my husband, although a child of the people, was a brave soldier; and what is more, an honest man,' observed Anne.

At this moment a venerable personage, the notary, Dubois, made his appearance.

'Cease,' said he, 'to reproach Anne with a union which her sister has forgiven her. Anne loved a brave, generous, and good man, who had no other crime to reproach himself with than his poverty and obscurity of his name. Nevertheless, had he lived—if his family had known him as I knew him, I his only friend—Anne would be at this time happy and respected.'

'But why is this woman here?'

'Because it is her place to be here,' said the notary gravely; 'I myself requested her to attend here.'

M. Dubois then proceeded to open the will.

'I being sound in my mind and heart, Egerie de Dumfreming, retired as a boarder in the convent of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, dictate the following wishes as the expression of me formal desire and principal clause of my testament:

'After my decease there will be found two hundred thousand francs, in money, at my notary's, besides jewelry, clothes, and furniture, as also a chattau worth two hundred thousand francs.

'In the convent where I have been residing, there will be found my book 'Heures de la Vierge,' holy volume, which remains as it was when I took it with me at the time of the emigration. I desire that these three objects be divided into three lots.

'The first lot, the two hundred thousand francs in money.

'The second lot, the chattau, furniture and jewels.

'The third lot, my book, 'Heures de la Vierge.'

'I have pardoned my sister Anne the grief she has caused us, and would have comforted her in her sorrows if I had known sooner of her return to France. I compromise her in my will.

'Madame de Villeboys, my much beloved cousin, shall have the first choice.

'M Vatry, my brother-in-law, shall have the second choice.

'Anne will take the remaining lot.'

'Ah! ah!' said Vatry, 'Sister Egerie was a good one; that is clever on her part.'

'Anne will only have the prayer book!' exclaimed Madame de Villeboys, laughing aloud. The notary interrupted her jocularly:

'Madam,' he said, 'which lot do you choose?'

'The two hundred thousand francs in money.'

'Have you made up your mind?'

'Perfectly so.'

The man of law addressing himself then to the good feelings of the lady, said 'Madame you are rich and Anne has nothing. Could you not leave her this and take the book of prayers, which the eccentricity of the deceased has placed on a par with the other lots?'

'You must be joking, M. Dubois,' exclaimed Madame de Villeboys; 'you must really be very dull not to see the intention of Sister Egerie in all this. Our honored cousin foresaw full well that her book of prayers would fall to the lot of Anne, who had the last choice.'

'And what do you conclude from that?' inquired the notary.

'I conclude that she meant to intimate to her sister that repentance and prayer were the only hope she had to expect in this world.'

As she finished these words, Madame de Villeboys made a definite selection of the money as her share. Monsier Vatry, as may easily be imagined, selected the chattau, furniture and jewels as his lot.

'Monsieur Vatry,' said M. Dubois to that gentleman, 'even suppose it had been the intention of the deceased to punish her sister, would it not be noble on your part, millionaire as you are, to give up at least a portion of your share to Anne, who wants it so much.'

'Thanks for your kind advice, dear sir,' said Vatry, 'the mansion is situated on the very confines of the woods, and suits me admirably, all the more so that it is ready furnished. As to the jewels of Sister Egerie, they are reminiscences which one ought never to part with.'

'Since it is so,' said the notary, 'my poor Madame Anne, here is the prayer book which remains to you.'

Anne, attended by her son, a handsome boy with blue eyes, took her sister's old prayer book, and making her son kiss it after her, she said:

'Hector kiss this book which belonged to your poor Aunt, who is dead, but who would have loved you well had she known you. When you have learned to read you will pray to Heaven to make you wise and good as your father was, and happier than your unfortunate mother.'

The eyes of those who were present were filled with tears, notwithstanding their efforts to preserve an appearance of indifference.

The boy embraced the book with boyish fervor, and opened it afterwards—

'Oh, mamma,' he said, 'what pretty pictures!'

'Indeed!' said the mother, happy in the gladness of her boy.

'Yes. The good Virgin in a red dress, holding the infant Jesus in her arms. But why, mamma, has silk paper been put upon the pictures?'

'So that they might not be injured, my dear.'

'But mamma, why are there ten silk papers to each?'

The mother looked, and uttering a sudden shriek, she fell into the arms of M. Dubois, the notary, who, addressing those present, said:

'Leave her alone; it won't be much, people don't die of these shocks' As for you, little one,' addressing Hector, 'give me that prayer book; you will tear the engravings.'

The inheritants withdrew, making various conjectures as to the cause of Anne's sudden illness, and the interest which the notary took in her. A month afterwards they met Anne and her son, exceedingly well, yet not extravagantly dressed, taking an airing in a two horse chariot. This led them to make inquiries, and they ascertained that Madame Anne had recently purchased a hotel for one hundred and eighty thousand francs, and that she was giving a good education to her son. The news came like a thunderbolt upon them. Madame de Villeboys and M. de Vatry hastened to call upon the notary to ask for explanations. The good Dubois was working at his desk.

'Perhaps we are disturbing you,' said the arrogant old lady.

'No matter, I was in the act of settling a purchase in the state funds of Madame Anne.'

'What!' exclaimed Vatry, 'after purchasing house and equipages, she has still money to invest?'

'Undoubtedly so.'

'But where did the money come from?'

'What! did you not see?'

'When?'

'When she shrieked upon seeing what the prayer book contained as her inheritage?'

'We observed nothing.'

'Oh! I thought you saw it,' said the sarcastic notary. 'That prayer book contained sixty engravings, and each engraving was covered by ten notes of a thousand francs each.'

'Good heavens!' exclaimed Vatry, thunderstruck.

'If I had only known it!' shouted Madame de Villeboys.'

'You had the choice,' said the notary, 'and I myself urged you to take the prayer book, but you refused.'

'But who could have expected to find a fortune in breviary?'

The two baffled old egotists withdrew, their hearts swollen with passionate envy.

Madame Anne is still in Paris. If you pass by the Rue Lafitte on a fine summer evening, you will see a charming picture on the first floor, illuminated by the pale reflection of wax lights.

A lady who has joined the two hands of her son, a fair child of six years of age, in prayer before an old book of Heures de la Vierge, and for which a case of gold has been made.

'Pray for me, child,' said the mother.

'And for who else?' inquired the child.

'For your father, your dear father who perished without knowing you, without being able to love you.'

'Must I pray to the saint, my patron?'

'Yes, little friend, but do not forget the saint who watches us from heaven, and who smiles upon us from above the clouds.'

'What is the name of that saint, mamma, dear?'

The mother, then watering the fair child's head with tears, answered:

'Her name is—Sister Egerie.'

Nicknames.

It frequently happens that certain States and Cities, instead of being referred to by their proper names, are indicated in some other way. Thus we have:

Virginia, the 'Ancient Dominion.'
Massachusetts, the 'Bay State.'
New York the 'Empire State.'
New Hampshire, the 'Granite State.'
Vermont, the 'Green Mountain State.'
Connecticut, the 'Land of Steady habits.'
Pennsylvania, the 'Key Stone State.'
South Carolina, the 'Palmetto State.'
Ohio, the 'Buckeye State.'
Michigan, the 'Wolverine State.'
Missouri, the 'Puke State.'
Indiana, the 'Hoosier State.'
Illinois, the 'Sucker State.'
Iowa, the 'Hawkeye State.'

So also, we have—

New York city, the 'Metropolis of America.' 'the Commercial Emporium,' and 'Gotham.'

Boston the 'Modern Athens,' and the 'Literary Emporium.'

Philadelphia, the 'City of Brotherly Love,' the 'City of Penn,' and the 'Quaker City.'

Pittsburg, the 'Smoky City,' and the 'Iron City.'

Baltimore, the 'Monumental City.'

Cincinnati, the 'Queen City,' 'Queen of the West,' and 'Porkopolis.'

New Orleans, the 'Crescent City.'

Washington, the 'City of Magnificent Distances.'

Chicago, the 'Garden City.'

Detroit, the 'City of the Straits.'

Cleveland, the 'Forest City.'

New Haven, the 'City of Elms.'

Richmond, Indiana, the 'Quaker City of the West.'

Layfayette, the 'Star City.'

Indianapolis, the 'Railroad City.'

St. Louis, the 'Mound City.'

Keokuk, the 'Gate City.'

USEFUL INFORMATION.—The washerwomen of Holland and Belgium, so provebially clean, and who get up their line so beautifully white, use refined borax as a washing powder instead of soda, in the proportion of a large handful of borax powder to about ten gallons of boiling water; they save in soap nearly half. All the large washing establishments adopt the same mode. For laces, cambrics, &c., an extra quantity of the powder is used, and for crinolines (required to be made very stiff), solution is necessary. Borax being a neutral salt does not in the slightest degree injure the texture of the linen; its effect is to soften the hardest water, and therefore, it should be kept on every toilet table. To the taste it is rather sweet, is used for cleaning the hair, is an excellent dentifrice, and in hot countries is used in combination with tartaric acid and bicarbonate of soda as a cooling beverage. Good tea cannot be made with hard water; all water may be made soft by adding a teaspoonful of borax powder to an extraordinary sized kettle of water in which it should boil. The saving in the quantity of tea used will be at least one fifth. To give to black tea the flavor of green tea, add a single leaf from the black currant tree.

TRUE ENOUGH.—A gentleman whose house was repairing, went one day to see how the job was getting on, and observing a number of nails lying about, said to the carpenter:

'Why don't you take care of these nails? they'll certainly be lost.'

'No,' replied the carpenter, 'you'll find them all in the bill.'

Doestick on Lager Beer.

Doesticks has been trying to ascertain by experiment whether or not Lager is intoxicating, and below is given, in his own language the result:

'The first glass seemed like our strong beer with a good deal of water in it; the next was not quite so sour, and the next one tasted as though the original beer had been stronger and they did not dilute it so much.

'Then we rested, and as I had drank three pints already, I was willing to quit, but Damphool assured me "Lager isn't intoxicating," so after a little settling down I thought I could hold another glass and ordered it; it was brought by a young lady who seemed to have four eyes and two noses pointing in different directions, which unusual effect was undoubtedly caused by smoke.

'Then I thought I'd have a glass of Lager (a liquid known to most of the inhabitants of Manhattan.) It was brought by a girl so pretty that I immediately ordered two more, and kept her waiting for the change each time so I could look at her—then we had some cheese full of holes: then we took some Lager to fill up the holes; and then we took a sausage; Damphool suggested that the sausage was made of dog, so we had some Lager to drown the dog; then we had some sardines; Damphool said it would be cruel to keep the fishes without a supply of the liquid element, so we had some Lager for the fishes to swim in; then we had some bretzels, and they were so crooked that they would not pack close, so we had some Lager to fill up the chinks; then I made a speech to the company; short but to the point, and received with applause—it was addressed to the whole crowd and was to this effect; 'Gentlemen let's have some Lager?'

'By this time my friend had by some mysterious process become mysteriously multiplied, and their were fifty Damphools, and they all accepted the invitation, and we had the Lager; there were forty glasses, and in trying to make the circuit of the room and touch my glass to every one of theirs, I fell over a table which very impertanently stepped before me, and as I went down I knocked a small Dutchman into the corner, then I fell over him, then I demanded an instant apology, then I called for six glasses of Lager, and the girl brought them all in one hand. I tried to take them all in one hand, but broke three, then I tried to drink out of the remaining three all at once, and in so doing I took an involuntary showerbath, then I tried to pay for the whole fifty glasses and the damage with a dime and a Spanish quarter, and demanded that he should give me my change in gold dollars, their seemed to be some difficulty about this, and if I hadn't known that Lager isn't intoxicating I should have thought the man was drunk.'

A KISS THAT DIDN'T PAY.—The Toledo Recorder gets off a good one in regard to a citizen of Iowa, whose wife, in his absence, had been kissed by a drover, while giving a glass of water. When he heard of the outrage, he started at once in pursuit, found the drover after a hard day's ride, and accused him of the theft.

The drover admitted the truth of the soft impeachment—said he had been a long time from home, was sorely tempted, and in an unguarded moment of frenzy, purloined the kiss but that he had not damaged the woman in the smallest particular—was very sorry—thought it was no matter to make much ado about, and therefore begged to be excused.

The husband finally concluded that this was the right view of the matter, and agreed to settle it upon the receipt of five dollars for his day's ride. This being satisfactory, the drover handed over a ten dollar bill and received five dollars in change. But when the aggrieved Benedict returned home and consulted his detector, he found the bill a counterfeit. He found he had suffered the indignation of having his wife kissed by a 'nasty drover,' passed one day in the saddle, and lost five dollars, and concluded that it didn't pay.

☞ During the progress of a trial recently at Auburn, says a correspondent of the Argus, the following occurred, to vary the monotony of the proceedings:

'Among the witnesses was one of the most verdant looking specimens of humanity one would wish to see. After a severe cross examination, the counsel for the government paused, and then putting on a look of severity, and with an ominous snake of the head, exclaimed:

'Mr. Witness, has not an effort been made to induce you to tell a different story?'

W.—'A different story from what I have told, sir?'

C.—'That is what I mean.'

W.—'Yes, sir; several persons have tried to get me to tell a different story from what I have told; but they could'nt.'

C.—'Now, sir, on your oath, I wish to know who those persons are.'

W.—'Waal, I guess you've tried 'bout as hard as any of 'em.'

The witness was speedily dismissed; while judge, jury and spectators indulged in a hearty laugh.'

The Cunning Thrush.

There is much more intellect in birds than people suppose. An instance of this occurred the other day at a slate quarry belonging to a friend, from whom we have the narrative. A thrush not aware of the expansive properties of gunpowder, thought proper to build her nest on a ridge of the quarry, in the very centre of which they were constantly blasting the rock. At first she was much discomposed by the fragments flying in all directions, but still she would not quit her chosen locality.—She observed that a bell rang whenever a train was about to be fired, and that at the notice the workmen retired to safe positions. In a few days, when she heard the bell, she quitted her exposed situation, and flew down to where the workmen sheltered themselves, dropping close to their feet. There she would remain until the explosion had taken place, and then return to her nest. The workmen observed this and narrated it to their employers, and it was told to visitors, who naturally expressed a wish to witness so curious a specimen of intellect, but as the rock could not always be blasted when visitors came, the bell was rung instead, and for a few days answered the same purpose. The thrush flew down close to where they stood, but she perceived the change, and it interferred in the process of incubation; the consequence was, that afterwards when the bell was rung, she would peep over the ledge to ascertain if the workmen did retreat, and if they did not, she would remain where she was.—London Literary Journal.

AN INTELLIGENT CANARY.—A favorite canary in a family in the city, a day or two since, exhibited more reason than they are generally credited with. From the upper part of the cage, a small brass bell had been suspended by a string, which the canary had learned to ring by pecking at it, and amused himself the day long by its musical ting-a-ling. Finally he pecked the string until he parted the strands, and the bell fell to the bottom of the cage. "Perley" in an instant flew down from his perch to the side of his toy, and after pecking at it for some time, and not succeeding in making it ring, he took a seat quietly beside it, and sat there for half a day, without once ascending to his perch, or going to his cup for food or drink. When the bell first dropped he chattered like a magpie, but he found it was no use to try to make it ring, he quit chirping and remained silent. When the bell was finally replaced in its former position, he flew upon the perch as lively as ever, and pecked away at the bell most industriously, keeping it ringing right lively all the afternoon. With the sound of the bell, his spirits returned, and he sung and chirped as merrily as formerly.—Cincinnati Gazette.

☞ What a volume of thought there is in the following item which is going ths rounds:

'A YOUNG SUICIDE.—A little girl, 12 years old, attempted to commit suicide at Boston, the othe other day. She had been severely punished several times by her teacher, and fearing further chastisement, she drank a tea-cupful of burning fluid, but an emetic saved her life. She gave her reasons for the act that the girls 'picked upon' her; that she was called 'stupid,' and her teacher had punished her, and she was tired of life.'

The world will never know how many people have been made stupid by the simple cry of 'dunce,' which has been hurled at them. The late Gov. Marcy was a 'stupid' boy until he got a teacher who had sense enough to treat him intelligently and frankly, instead of 'larrupping' the future statesman for every fault.

RECIPROCATED AFFECTION.—A dandy with more beauty than brains, married an heiress, who, although very accomplished, was by no means handsome. One day he said to her.

'My dear, ugly as you are, I love you as well as if you were pretty.'

Thank you, love,' was the reply, 'I can return the compliment, for fool as you are, I love you as well as if you had wit.'

One of the beauties of the Court of Prussia, said one day to the king,

'Sire, why is it, that you, who are so glorious already, still seek for new fame?'

'Madam,' he replied 'for the same reason that you, although so beautiful, will still wear rouge.'

COPYING A BLOT.—'Mother, who, of all the big boys should you like for me to pattern?' asked a little boy who was looking around for a good example.

'Who should you think?' asked his mother; 'you know the big boys better than I do.'

The little boy thought. Then he said, 'There's Dan Parges, he smokes; there's Bill Parker, he swears; Tom Jones he's got a horrid temper; Sam Jay, he sprees it; Jim Wood, he hates study; Joe Blake, he's cross; Charlie Doe, he goes fishing Sunday. Gus Tyng, he tells whappers. Mother, there isn't one that, if I copy, I shouldn't copy a blot from.'

☞ The junior editor is still confined to his bed, although considered to be convalescent. This, together with a continued rush of job work, which is always welcome, (the job work—not the sickness) has prevented us from giving our paper that attention it should have received.—We think our excuse sufficient.

More About that "Arrangement."

In another column of to-day's paper will be found a communication from "One Who Knows," which will throw a little more light on the subject broached by the same writer in our last week's issue. It places one of the candidates for the Congressional nomination, and two of the American Conferrees, in no very enviable position. The "satisfactory arrangement" and selling out of the American party, previously referred to, will now be fully understood. By what authority, we would ask, have those two American Conferrees entered into this "satisfactory arrangement." Were they delegated the power thus to meet in secret council with the Conferrees of a different party and enter into an "arrangement" known to be contrary to the will of the American party of this county and in violation of the published instructions of fifty-seven of the seventy delegates who elected them, and that too, without giving any information of their intentions to their party? There is something "rotten in Denmark," and it is time the Americans of Blair were waking up to the fact. That an attempt has been made to sell them out is now certain, but it is for them to say whether they will ratify the bargain. True, there are some who have heretofore acted with the American party, who are now known as "American Republicans," who would desire to sell themselves as well as the Americans to the Republicans. They hold a kind of mock auction—the bidder examines and pronounces them good Americans and gives a bid. Peter Funk steps in and he is knocked off to the Republican candidate at a high price, when he really does not know that there is an American organization in the county. Can it be expected that such men express the sentiments of the American party of Blair, and that it will be governed by their actions? No sir. Let not the friends of the Congressional candidate referred to expect that by such means they can drive the American party of this county into his support.—However it might have been inclined to regard him had he pursued an honest, straightforward course and obtained the nomination, his tampering with the American Conferees to secure their influence in violation of their instructions, has raised a barrier over which he will not be able to climb.

☞ On Monday morning of last week, the effects of Gen. Persifer F. Smith were sold at auction in Philadelphia. The attendance of military gentlemen is said to have been very large, and the biding quite spirited. Among the articles sold were engravings, mathematical instruments, rifles, pistols, carbines, epaulette, a large amount of military wearing apparel, a chess table made of wood from the Vera Cruz fortifications, a military arm chair, &c. Sixty-four diamonds dressed in the city of Mexico, were offered and induced some animated bidding. Gen. Patterson led all the competitors, he bidding $100 apiece, when they were knocked down to him for that sum. Everything brought good prices.

RIVALING THE TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Winans, of Baltimore, the locomotive builder, is said to be building a steamer in Baltimore, upon plans entirely his own, which is to cross the Atlantic in six days. A man who can knock six days off twelve in the period required to cross the Atlantic, may take rank next to Morse in annihilating time. We will see, directly, whether Mr. Winans' scheme succeeds. So much has been accomplished recently by science and skill, that it would be hazardous to predict any untried experiment as impossible.

The Tyrone "Star,"

The last number of the above named paper contains an article in reply to the communication of "One Who Knows," which appeared in the Tribune of last week, in which the editor hoots at the idea of a "bargain and sale" and the "satisfactory arrangement," and attempts to ridicule with high sounding words and witty (?) sarcasms the non-de-plume of the writer, plainly indicating that he evidently knows more about the whole transactions than he cares to have made public. He asks the writer to "speak right out in meetin'," and he has done so, without any "hinting and squinting" about it. The public can now guess whether he "knows" anything about what he intimated in his former communication. The Star can now be convinced that the Conferees of the American party are not what they were supposed to be, although they may be what he wished them. The American party is not governed by a single adviser, nor will they be handed over to a minority party by a few scheeming and designing politicians. The trick is now too transparent for the Star, to attempt to cover it up by the cry of "American Republican" "good man" who will "run the largest vote." Recent actions have materially diminished the expected vote both here and elsewhere. But enough; "One Who Knows" is able to take care of himself.

☞ In the last number of the Tyrone Star we find almost a column article in reply to our intimation that there were peaceable and more satisfactory means of settling the difficulty now existing between the editor of the Star and the editor of the Hollidaysburg Standard. We did not presume that our advice would be received and acted upon, nevertheless we are not convinced by the lengthy article in the Star that we were not correct.—The editor of the Star argues, and we agree with him, that character is as valuable as life, and then asks, in substance, whether he should not pursue his present course to sustain his character which has been assailed by the editor of the Standard. We ask, what does he expect to recover by a course of law that could not have been more easily recovered by other means. Can a price be placed on life? and if character be as valuable as life, will money pay for it? Certainly not. Then what is to be gained by carrying the matter up to Court? Nothing more, we opine, than giving the affair a more notorious publication, unless the editor of the Star places a valuation on his reputation, and should succeed in recovering it; and ever that would be but a small remuneration. We are not the apologist of Mr. Traugh, never having spoken to him about the matter, but we entertain too high an opinion of his courtesy as a gentleman and editor, to believe that he would not have made due reparation for the wrong done the editor of Star, had he been convinced of his error, and our only excuse for medling with the case is a dislike to witness such proceedings between our brethren of the press. We do not pretend to dictate to the editor of the Star. As he is the agrieved party he has a right to pursue whatever course to him seemeth best.

KANSAS ELECTION RETURNS.—The Board of Election Commissioners, constituted by the "English Bill," have issued a proclamation, declaring the proposition rejected by nine thousand five hundred and twelve majority. The whole vote was thirteen thousand and eighty-eight. No fraudulent votes were received, but a few precincts were rejected on account of informalities. Nearly ten thousand majority in condemnation of the bribe tendered the people of Kansas, by the Administration, to sacrifice their principles and make Kansas a slave State! This result is creditable to the friends of Freedom in that Territory, and gratifying to the great mass of people of the North

THE PEACE DESPATCH.—The papers dwell upon the fact that the first news despatch received from England was one of PEACE. It was no common coincidence that the same intelligence should have reached the sovereigns of England and France just when they had met, on one of the most memorable occasions of their reigns, to renew to each other most solemn pledges of peace and friendship, and alliance. And it is now no common coincidence that the very first business service rendered by this mighty agent is to herald peace—to herald it, when it was unlooked for, and from the only spot on the globe where international war existed.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—Official returns from all the counties in the State except six, show the complexion of the Legislature to be as follows: House, Democrats, 81; Opposition, 41. Senate, Democrats, 24; Opposition, 9. The remaining counties will probably give the Opposition 6 and the Democrats 1.

NEW YORK AMERICAN COUNCIL.—Henry B. Northrop has been elected President of the American State Council for the ensuing year. A warm discussion ensued as to the place and time of the State convention, some of the members favoring the same place and day as the Republican convention. Resolutions were reported denouncing the conduct of the Administration in Kansas affairs, and maintaining the general views of the American party.

THE APPLE CROP.—While the apple crop in this part of the country is generally considered a failure, it will be good news to learn, as we do from the Boston Transcript of the 9th inst., that "the apple trees in that part of New England give promise of a great crop of excellent fruit. The early kinds will soon be in the market, and the best winter apples will be of large size and superior quality."

LUSUS NATURÆ.—The Rockingham Register, under this head, states that a negro woman in Harrisonburg, Virginia, gave premature birth, one day last week, to two infants—one black and the other white! Proprietors were requested to call and claim their property.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS—The Executive County Committe, appointed at the Blair County Nominating Convention of the opponents of the National Administration, held on the 5th of August, 1857, meet regularly every Saturday, in Hollidaysburg.

CENTRE COUNTY.—On Wednesday last the Opposition convention nominated Jas. T. Hale for Congress; Col. Andrew Gregg for State Senator; and Adam Barlow for Assembly.

The "Satisfactory Arrangement" Consumated.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The "Satisfactory arrangement" has become a fixed fact. A secret meeting, composed of two of the Congressional Conferees chosen by the American County Convention and the three Republican Conferees, was held at this place to-day, and three of their number were selected to represent them in Johnstown, on the 8th of September. This meeting was got up privately, by the friends of S. S. Blair, Esq., without consultation with the Americans of the county and without notice to any of the other Congressional candidates; and in order to hide their actions from the glare of the noonday sun, after ample consultation with Mr. Blair and his supporters, the Conferees met and sat with closed doors.

This is the "satisfactory arrangement" which Mr. Blair spoke of in his letter to Cambria county, which Mr. Kopelin said he saw the day previous to the meeting of their county Convention and which induced him to throw his influence in favor of Mr. Blair. When it was whispered that this "satisfactory arrangement" had been made, and that two of the American Conferees had been secured, by what means yet remains to be seen, and disregarding their instructions intended to support Mr. Blair for Congress, it could scarcely be credited, and it was not until Mr. Hileman, one of the Conferees, himself stated the fact in confidence, that the rumor was reduced to a certainty.

The first step in this "satisfactory arrangement" was the nomination of the Republican ticket by the friends of Mr. Blair, for the avowed purpose of holding it in terrorum over the heads of the Americans. Like the English-Kansas Bill it was to act at once as a bibe and a threat. They say to the Americans in substance "nominate Mr. Blair, gentlemen, and he will take down the Republican ticket; defeat his nomination and the ticket shall stay in the field, and we will defeat your county nominations.—"This was the two-edged sword that was to be used upon the masses to awe them into submission, whilst the Conferees were being acted on by arguments equally as potent.

It now remains to be seen if this "arrangement" will be "satisfactory" to the Americans of the county. The "Straight-outs" of Altoona, Logan and Antes have too often braved certain defeat in defence of their principles to be driven into the support of Mr. Blair by any threats that either he or his friends may use, and the American party of the county is composed of men too high-minded and honorable to be bribed into the support of a candidate for Congress, even though his friends may promise in return the election of their county ticket, and notwithstanding the course their Conferees may have seen fit to adopt.

If the Johnstown Conference endorses this "satisfactory arrangement" you will hear from me further. "ONE WHO KNOWS."

Hollidaysburg, August, 31, 1858.

☞ Last Friday week, the overseer of Mr. James K. Polk's plantation (some eight miles below this) undertook to whip one of the hands, when the others interfered and rescued the culprit. Mr. Mars, the overseer, then started out for assistance, and during his absence the negroes armed themselves with axes, hatchets, clubs, scythes, stones, &c., retreated to the ginhouse, bade defiance to the overseer and his friends, and swore they would die to a man before one of their party should be whipped. Mr. Amos Duke, in attempting to arrest one of them, was struck across the side of the head with a club, it is feared, will lose one of his eyes from the effects of the blow. Things continued in this state up to Tuesday last, when a party of some seventy-five citizens of this place and Troy visited the plantation, and arrested every negro on the place. They were tried the next morning on the plantation, before Judge Fisher, who committed four of the ringleaders to jail to await the action of the grand jury. The balance, some fifty or sixty, were whipped according to their several deserts.—Coffeeville (Miss.) Intelligencer.

CHILDISH IDIOSYNCRASY.—A child of barely three years, the son of a friend of ours, was recently desirous of visiting the menagerie, but being afflicted with the whooping-cough, his parents objected thereto, although they allowed his brother—a little fellow two or three years older—permission. The senior brother, deeming this a triumph over the younger, said to him, in a bantering way, "Ah, bub, you can't go to the show, but I can!" "Bub" was evidently annoyed, and, as his tiny eyes became suffused, replied, "But I'll do, and if pa don't 'ot me, I'll give de el'phant de toopin toff!"—After which terrible threat, overcome with emotion, he burst into tears."

A few nights since, while a storm was raging, the same child inquired of his grandma, while listening to the thunder, "When Dod walks so, why don't he fall trough?"—a question that his grand parent, with her much superior years and wisdom, added to her knowledge of the Scriptures and theology, was unable to answer.

☞ The Postmaster at Pulaski, Ky., has been detected in playing a sharp game on the Post Office. He selected such offices, the mail matter of which had to pass through his office, and on return being made from the Department would abstract the letters and appropriate the contents to his own use.

Mysterious Case.

We clip the following account of a very mysterious case of abduction and probable murder of a distinguished lady from the New York Tribune, of Monday last:—

On the 20th of last month Mrs. Brennan was in New York, visiting some of her friends in the upper part of the city. She told her friends that she was going home by the afternoon boat. Mrs. Brennag has for some time past been staying at the residence of her mother at Chelsea, Station Island, and when speaking of going home, she meant to this place. It appears, however, that she did not return to her mother's that night, and the following morning her relatives and friends made inquiries for her at various places throughout the city, but were unable to obtain any information as to her whereabouts.

On the 23d Dr. Crane, a brother of Mrs. Brennan's gave information to Deputy Superintendent Carpenter relative to her disappearance.—Deputy Carpenter placed the matter in the hands of Detective Officers Wildey and McDougal, and deputized them specially to investigate the affair. These officers at first obtained a full and minute description of Mrs. Brennan, and made inquiries of various persons, who asserted that they had seen her last. They ascertained that a lady dressed in black was seen at the Port Richmond Ferry at 8 o'clock, a few moments after the boat had gone, and that she appeared greatly disappointed at being left. She took an up-town stage from the ferry.

Officers Wildey and McDougal subsequently traced Mrs. Brennan, or a lady dressed in black supposed to be her, on board of the 7 o'clock boat—the last boat down to the island for the day. A gentleman was found who said that he had noticed the lady on the boat, and, from the fact of her being unattended, took more notice of her than he otherwise would. He saw her go to a livery stable, and subsequently saw her get into a hack, into which she was followed by a man, and the vehicle was driven off.

The officers visited the stable and saw the proprietor, who told them that he recollected a lady answering the description coming to the stable and asking for a carriage. She asked him if he was acquainted with Col. Crane, and he replied by sight only—that he knew his brother. His attention was soon after directed elsewhere, and the lady made an agreement with one of the drivers, but which one he did not know.

The gentleman above mentioned said that a man followed Mrs. B. but did not speak to her or she to him. He approached the carriage after she had got in, and saying something to the driver, jumped into the vehicle, which was then driven off. From this and other information which the police for the present withhold, the officers came to the conclusion that Mrs. Brennan had been violated and then murdered, and her body secreted somewhere on the island.—Owing to the darkness of the night the gentleman was unable to distinguish the countenance of the person who followed her into the carriage, and could not for the same reason identify the driver. Officers Wildey and McDougal returned to the city and gave all the information to the Deputy, who detailed Officers Poole and Stevenson to go down to the island and make a thorough search.

This search was made, but without avail.—The next day the Deputy accompanied the officers and searched the grounds and roads for half a mile from the residence of Mrs. Crane, the mother of Mrs. Brennan. Every place where a body might have been buried was searched.—No trace of the missing woman was however here found.

From all the facts obtained, the police are certain that Mrs. Brennan left Quarantine or Tompkinsville in a carriage, and that some man got into the vehicle with her. The drivers of the carriage were closely questioned, and one of them, who gave a suspicious account of himself on the night in question, was apprehended. Other parties are suspected, but facts enough have not yet been obtained to warrant their arrest. An investigation is to be had in the case before a magistrate at Port Richmond this week, when some interesting facts relative to the disappearance of Mrs. Brennan will be elicited.

A Very Tragical Joke.

Quizzing, says the Mobile Tribune, has sometimes awkward results. Every good thing has some attendant evil, and so of this. There are dangers accompanying it, that they who aspire to enjoy the unspeakable pleasure of enjoying the frightening, deceiving, or disappointing of their fellow-creatures, instead of more old-fashioned and more humble jokes, must make up their minds to do so at some risk. A case of this sort, which occurred of late on the Pacific coast, is thus related by a California paper:

"Two of the Rogue river Indian Chiefs, a father and son, were sent down from Fort Vancouver, W. T., to San Francisco, by the steamer Columbia. On their passage down, these Indians were informed by some of the foolish passengers that they were going to be hung.—The savages resolved to sell their lives dearly; so, in the dead of night on the 11th of June, while the passengers were all asleep, these Indians stealthily rose, and stealing from some of the slumbering guards revolvers and knives, suddenly commenced an indiscriminate shooting and cutting among the people around them.—The passengers, startled from sleep by the sound of pistol shots and the shrieking of the wounded, became panic struck. The lights were put out, and an indescribable scene followed. One passenger was shot in the breast, three others were cut, one woman being badly injured. The officers of the boat finally armed themselves, and, after a desperate struggle, succeeded in wounding and overpowering the savages. They were both wounded, one of them very severely.

NEW SETTLEMENT.—A new settlement has been started at Hammonton, New Jersey, which for success and progress rivals anything we have heard of in the West. There is a large emigration having objection to the West on account of unhealthfulness, distance and association, which embraces this new enterprise. The land is in a genial climate, and the soil is said to be amongst the best Jersey soil. Jersey, as will be seen by the agricultural statistics at the Patent Office, is the first agricultural State in the Union for the value of its products. Hammonton is within thirty miles of Philadelphia by railroad, and enjoys one of the best markets in the Union.—The tide of emigration to this place is immense, as well from the West as from the North.—Many of the best grape growers of Ohio have located, with a view to making wine. To judge of its progress, the population one year ago is numbered at only five persons; it now numbers over eight hundred souls, has one hundred and twenty-five buildings, three stores, two churches, Episcopal and Methodist, steam mill, brickyard, marble yard, public school, newspaper, &c., some twenty-five miles of new roads opened, six square miles being improved, a new railroad station, and all the elements of an old place.—We are satisfied that this place must possess merit from its unparalleled progress.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing both purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to perform its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy whereby to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is sure to follow.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy state of bile, improving the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the most hearty meal will cure Dyspepsia, from rising and souring. One dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels, gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia. One dose of two teaspoonful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while it is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA. One dose often repeated, needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness. Only one bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all unlowness or unnatural color from the skin. One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well. One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints never fails to yield almost to the first dose. A few bottles cures Dropsy in children: there is no remedy in the world, as it by exciting the absorbents, by exciting the absorbents, We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, &c. It operates with certainty, all Fevers of a Bilious type, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend seeings his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out and we can now say that our boy has a healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My Hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

LOCAL ITEMS.

DANGEROUS DENTAL OPERATION—One of the Subjects since Dead.—On Saturday last Drs. Hirst, Good and Bittner performed a very dangerous dental operation on two individuals from the mountain, above this place. Before proceeding with the operation it was deemed advisable to place the subjects under the influence of chloroform, which was accordingly administered by Drs. Hirst & Good. The first patient exhibited a combative spirit when approached with the fluid, but finally succumbed and two teeth were extracted without further difficulty. The second, which appeared to be the stronger of the two, was not so easily placed under the influence, although he exhibited less spirit of fight. After he had been sufficiently effected to render the operation safe, two teeth were extracted. The first patient soon recovered from the effects of the chloroform, but the second remained in a dead stupor and all efforts to arouse him proved unavailing. The vital spark had evidently fled. He was left for a time with his companion in the office, in hopes that he might ultimately recover, but, sorry as we are to announce the fact, the reality of his situation was made apparent to us, on Monday morning, when we found him to all intents and purposes a dead—rattlesnake.

RED MEN'S PARADE.—We understand that the members of Winebago Tribe, No. 35, I. O. R. M., of this place, purpose having a parade, in full regalia, on Saturday the 11th inst. Invitations have been extended to a number of sister Tribes throughout the State, several of whom will certainly be in attendance. We have no doubt the parade will be a grand one, and be quite a sight to our citizens. If the order only makes as creditable a display as it did in Mifflintown, at the parade on the 3d of July, it will be hard to take down. But we have no doubt it will far excel that. A magnificent collation will be served up to the invited Brothers, in Hagerty's woods, below town. We shall publish the programme of proceedings next week.

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS.—Through the exertions of our excellent Burgess and Street Supervisor, E. M. Jones, the streets and sidewalks are receiving that attention which they require. The streets are being graded, and sidewalks laid down for those who will not attend to the matter themselves. Should the work be prosecuted as vigorously for some time to come as it has been, we will be ready for the mud and slush of the fall and winter, as there will then be sidewalks in all parts of the town. The inconvenience arising from the want of good walks has been severely felt, and we are pleased to see that the right spirit is being manifested by our efficient "city fathers," in this particular.

SENSIBLE RESOLUTIONS.—Resolved, That we heartily approve of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, prepared at 140 Wood Street, Pittsburg, Pa., and that we have used it in our families for Coughs and Colds with great benefit.

Resolved, That we hail it as one of the most salutary medicines known for the cure of Asthma and Bronchitis.

Resolved, That we will encourage its use among the people for the reason that it cures so speedily, and costs so little.

Resolved, That one dose of Keyser's Pectoral Syrup will often cure a slight Cold, which if neglected might terminate in Consumption.

Resolved, That we will go to G. W. Kessler's Drug Store and buy a bottle.

WRITING SCHOOL.—Mr. Clowes would respectfully inform the ladies and gentlemen of Altoona, that he has commenced teaching a class in penmanship, in Figart's Hall. The ladies class meets at 4 o,clock, and gentlemen's class at 7½ o'clock P. M.

His long experience in teaching he hopes will enable him to give entire satisfaction to all who may patronize him.

He is also prepared to mark visiting and wedding cards in a style unsurpassed by any engraver.

FIGHT IN THE CARS.—When the Mail Train Westward was about leaving this station on Saturday evening last, quite an excitement was created by the cry of "a fight in the cars," which was occasioned by a fellow, who had imbibed a little too much of the "O-be-joyful," attempting to chastise the breaksman on the hindmost car. The case was soon disposed of, however, on the arrival or Col Cramer, of the Branch train, who ejected the unruly passenger from the car and gave him into the hands of Constable Ely, who placed him in the "Lock up" for a couple of hours.

THE HAMMONTON FARMER.—A newspaper devoted to Literature and Agriculture, also setting forth full accounts of the new settlement of Hammonton, in New Jersey, can be subscribed for at only 25 cts. per annum.

Inclose postage stamps for the amount. Address to Editor of the Farmer, Hammonton, Atlantic Co. New Jersey. Those wishing cheap land, of the best quality, in one of the healthiest and most delightful climates in the Union, see advertisement of Hammonton Lands.

MASONIC PICNIC.—The Masonic Fraternity of this place intend having a picnic in Beale's Woods, near this place, to-morrow. It will no doubt be a grand affair, if we may judge from the character of those who are taking an active part in arranging the preliminaries. A car chartered for the purpose will convey those in attendance from this place to the woods. We hope they may have a pleasant day and a merry time.

REMOVAL.—We are sorry to notice that by a recent decision of the heads of the departments of the P. R. R. Co., our young friend, J. C. Boggs, Esq., chief clerk of the Freight Department, has been removed from this place to Philadelphia. We part with him with regret, as his proverbially kind and courteous treatment toward all with whom he came in contact, won our respect, and in his removal we loose a good citizen and a pleasant associate. We hope his new home may prove an agreeable one.

CUT THIS OUT AND STICK IT IN YOUR HAT.—Wood's Hair Restorative will change gray hair to its original color, stop it from falling off, and cause it to grow on bald heads, and as a cosmetic it has no equal. Pimples and Wood's Hair Restorative cannot exist together.

CAUTION.—Beware of worthless imitations, as several are already in the market, called by different names. Use none unless the words (Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, Depot St. Louis, Mo., and New York). are blown in the bottle. Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine dealers, also by all Fancy and Toilet Goods dealers in the United States and Canada. See advertisement in this weeks paper.

NO ACCOMMODATIONS FOR CIRCUSES.—On Tuesday last, the agent for Van Amburg & Co's Zoological and Equestrian Company, visited this place, but failing to procure accommodations for the great number of horses attached to this establishment, had to pass on to the city (?) of Tyrone. He indulged in a few strictures on the "airs" put on by our hotel-keepers, nevertheless we believe they can as well afford to do without such custom as the company can without the dimes they would have received, and we are sure the community in general will not regret the loss of their entertainment.

CURIOUS, ISN'T IT.—That almost every person you meet appears anxious to tell you what kind of weather we are having, just as if you did not know yourself. "Quite a cold day, isn't it?" "It is cold enough for a stove." "This is cool weather," and a host of similar expressions, greet you at every corner; in fact they form the principal subject of conversation. How different this theme from all others. It never wears out. And yet how ridiculous is it, when you calmly consider that the person to whom the remark has just been made knows as well as you what kind of weather is prevailing.

MEETING OF THE CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the Altoona Fair View Cemetery Association was held in the Town Council Chamber, on Saturday evening last, and a resolution passed placing an assessment of three dollars on each lot. On the payment of the assessment, each lot holder will receive a certificate of stock in the Association, which will be redeemed as soon as the Association has the means, or will be taken in payment for lots yet unsold.

THE CAMP MEETING.—The Union Camp Meeting broke up on Thursday morning last. The attendance throughout was very good, and less of the spirit of rowdyism manifested than is usual on such occasions. Although the spirit of revival was not so great as was anticipated, still it is hoped that serious impressions have been made from which good will result.

MORE TALL BUCKWHEAT.—On Saturday last, Mr. Glass, residing a short distance from this place, who presented us with a tall stock of buckwheat, a few weeks since, came into our office with another stock which measured six feet and ten inches. This we think will take down anything in the line of tall buckwheat in this "neck 'o timber."

VALUABLE PROPERTY.—By reference to the new advertisements in to-day's paper, it will be seen that Mr. Geo. B. Cramer offers a valuable lot in this place, and good house and lot a short distance up the railroad, for sale. They are both desirable properties. Any person wishing to secure a neat and comfortable home would do well to view the last named lot.

RELIGIOUS.—We have been requested to state that there will be divine service in the Lutheran Church, in this place, on Sunday next, at the usual hour. Rev. Steck, of Davenport. Iowa, who has been called to this charge, is expected to fill the pulpit on that day.

BOROUGH SCHOOLS.—The public schools of the Borough will not open until Monday next, the Directors having been unable to complete all their arrangements prior to the first instant. Children East of the Railroad will go to the East Ward schools, and those West of the Railroad to the West Ward schools.

NEWRY, August 30, 1858.

MESSRS EDITORS:—I arrived at this ancient village this morning, and after having looked around a little, I now proceed to give you a short sketch of the place and some other things as I found them. I will begin by remarking that this village is one of the oldest in the county, and although surrounded by a beautiful and fertile country, has bid defiance to that spirit of improvement which has manifested itself so commendably in other places. I notice but one house in process of erection, which, although small, will be a neat and handsome dwelling.—One gentleman has torn down the porch in front of his dwelling and erected a new one in its stead. The citizens speak very confidently of getting a railroad to this place in a short time, and indeed I believe they can easily accomplish it, if they but try.

This place has two churches, a Catholic and Lutheran, very neatly built and numerously attended. I had the pleasure of visiting the public school taught by Mr. John H. Black. I found it composed of seventy-two children, all under ten years of age, and a brighter and more interesting group of little children it was never my lot to see before. They were orderly and obedient to their teacher, who never spake a harsh or angry word to them during my stay. Mr. Black's term of school is eight months, half of which will be devoted to teaching all under ten years of age; the other half, all above that age. Mr. Black is a young man of the right stamp. He is affable and courteous, embracing in his character all that is necessary to make a gentleman. He well understands the art of "teaching the young idea how to shoot," and is untiring in his efforts to render satisfaction to the parents and to do his duty to the little ones under his care. In a word, he is a model Schoolmaster.

This place supports two good hotels, one of which I visited, that kept by Landon Reeves, Esq., and called the "Franklin House." I was furnished with a splendid dinner and gracefully waited upon by a young and beautiful female just bursting into lovely womanhood, which delightful fact made me partake of the good things before me with a zest unknown to me before.—The next time I write you, I will be some where else. PASSIM.

THE PANIC—MORE FAILURES.—The panic in New York seems to be on the increase. In this city everything goes on smoothly, and the only failures we have heard of were the failures to furnish good fits made by some inferior clothing establishments. There is no such difficulty to be encountered by those who patronize the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above sixth. Gentlemen and Youths never fail to procure capital fits at this popular establishment.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.—One of the very best Cough Medicines to be found anywhere, is Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, sold by G. W. Kessler, at 50 cents per bottle.

J. D. STONEROAD,—Dear Sir;—Mr. Wm. Turnbaugh, who has been suffering several years from Rheumatism, was so ill that his friends and relatives were summoned to witness his death. I induced his friends to try the virtue of your preparation, and they did so, as a last resort; and to their astonishment and joy, he began to improve, got better and better, and now, so far as I know, he is a hale and stout man. This is not the only case where the Galvanic Oil has surpassed human expectations. In every case where I have recommended the Oil, it has done what it promises to do. Send us another $20's worth. Yours truly, SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time. J. H. HAHN,

DUVALL'S GALVANIC OIL.

Prepared originally by Prof. H. DU VALL, formerly of the College of Surgeons, at Paris, is now offered to the public, ☞ for the cure of sore and painful diseases ☜

For instance—Pain or soreness in any part of the system, Rheumatism, pain in the back, breast or side, bealed breasts, neuralgia, burns, sprains, headache, cramp in the stomach, or any other disease that is SORE and PAINFUL, and it is only over this class of diseases that we claim a perfect VICTORY. We say positively to our patrons we can relieve the sufferer 99 times out of 100. We would just say to the public, Prof. Du Vall was 25 years in bringing to this medicine superiority over all others.

The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years, with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia.—Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practical farmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling there. It is an important business place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every article raised upon this land finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent, and no such thing as fever is known.

The soil is a sandy or clay loam, with a clay bottom and retentive of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon this land and the large area adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled anywhere in the production of crops most adapted to its market.

The reader may be well aware that the earliest and the best fruits and vegetables come from New Jersey, which are annually exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck manure.

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyards being started on the ground. A person can put up a frame tenement for present convenience for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms.

In settling here the emigrant has many advantages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities of the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, where every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malignant fevers which make the graves of so many millions of the young and and hardy in the far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild climate and an open winter.

There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all those who improve the railroad company gives a free ticket.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see the land under cultivation; they will meet persons, no doubt, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements, and can judge of the character of the population. Persons should come prepared to purchase, as many are locating, and locations are not held on refusal.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly Literary and Agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, will be sent to each enquirer, and can be obtained at 25 cts per annum.

Title indisputable. Warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance, when purchase money is paid. Route to the land:—Leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia, for Hammonton, by railroad, at 7½ A. M., and 5½ P. M.; when there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences will be found. Letters and applications can be addressed to S. B. COUGHLIN, 202 South FIFTH Street, below Walnut, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—VOLUME FOURTEENTH begins September 11, 1858.
MECHANICS, INVENTORS, MANUFACTURERS AND FARMERS.

The Scientific American has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science, on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical and industrial works, as to please and instruct every one. If the Mechanic or Artizan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the Housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the Manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to employ the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the Scientific American, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS:—One Copy, One Year, $2; One Copy, 6 Months, $1; Five Copies, 6 Months, $4; Ten Copies, 6 Months, $8; Ten Copies, Twelve Months, $15; Fifteen Copies, Twelve Months, $22; 20 Copies, Twelve Months, $28, in advance.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.
CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves.

NEW FIRM AND NEW GOODS.—J. & J. LOWTHER have just returned from the City and are now receiving their stock of which they feel assured are as HANDSOME and CHEAP, if not a little cheaper, than any yet brought to this place.

SPRING GOODS,

On account of going to Philadelphia late in the season, we have been able to buy our goods at greatly reduced prices, and we are determined to sell them at very small profits for cash or to prompt monthly paying customers.

We have as usual a splendid stock of such as LAWNS, ROBES A' QUILLE, CHALLIES, BAYADERE, LARELLAS, DUCALS, POIL, DECHEVRES, DELAINS, PRINTS, GINGHAMS, &c.

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

Also, Shawls and Mantillas in great variety, together with a good stock of Domestic Dry Goods, Straw Goods, BOOTS & SHOES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, GROCERIES, &c., &c.

The citizens of Altoona will find it to their advantage to examine our stock, as we are not to be undersold.

NEW GROCERY FEED AND PROVISION STORE.

The subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity that he has opened a store of the above kind, near the corner of Adaline and Julia streets, East Altoona, where he will keep constantly on hand a full supply of everything in his line. His

GROCERIES

are all fresh and will be sold at prices as low as those of any other establishment in town. His stock of provisions, consisting of Flour, Hams, Shoulders, Sides, &c.

will be sold a little cheaper than they can be bought any where else. His Flour is obtained from the best mills in the Western part of the State, and is warranted to be what it is represented.

All kinds of Feed for horses, cows and hogs, always on hand.

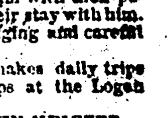

I intend to keep such an assortment that I shall at all times be able to supply my customers with whatever they may need, and I intend also to sell at prices which will make it a saving to those who patronize my store.

POSITIVE INFORMATION!—THE undersigned having perfected their Spring Stock, now offer to the public the LARGEST LOT OF GROCERIES ever presented in the town of Altoona.

Our object in publishing this card is to present the following facts:

1st. The recent hard times have very much reduced the price of Groceries in the city, especially to cash buyers.
2d. We bought these Groceries in large lots, many of them from first hands.
3d. We bought them entirely for cash.
4th. We sell for ready pay.
5th. We keep our stock full by weekly receipts.
6th. We are determined to keep up the credit of our house.
7th. We sell more GROCERIES than any other store in Blair county, at less per cent.
8th. We sell cheaper than any other store in the county.

A continuation of patronage is respectfully solicited.

Choice Poetry.

YANKEE SARAH NADE.

BY SAMUEL SLOCUM, OF GOSLING RUN.

I'm sitting on the style, Mary,
 Sitting on the style,
But the bull dog in the front yard
 Keeps barking all the while;
Why don't you tell your pa, Mary,
 Or John, if he's about,
To ask old Sammy Slocum in,
 And make the dog get eout!

Now I'm sitting on the fence, Mary,
 Before the kitchen door,
But the pesky ugly bull dog
 Barks louder than before;
And I thought I saw a shadow, Mary,
 A shadow slim and tall,
All arms and legs, like Reuben Brown,
 Against the whitewashed wall.

If that is Reuben's shadow, Mary,
 If that was Reuben's shade,
'Twill bring the 'spepsy back on me,
 I'm very much afraid;
Oh, why this cruel treatment,
 Why keep me in suspense,
Why don't you make that dog get eout,
 And let me off the fence?

I've got a keow and calf, Mary,
 The calf is three weeks old;
A score of pretty sheep, too,
 As ever fed in fold;
And daddy told me yesterday,
 When dapple had a colt,
He'd let me have it sure—
 Ain't that Reub. Brown a dolt?

And mammy's knitting stockings now,
 To buy a cotton web—
One-half the sheets are to be mine,
 One-half for sister Deb;
And mammy says whichever one
 First brings a partner hum,
Shall have the pumpkin blossom quilt—
 Say, Mary, won't you come?

Geewhilikens! you' ought to see
 The rooster and the hen,
That uncle Pelego Shakelford
 Sent me by cousin Ben;
I guess he wakes the folks around
 When he gin's out to crow—
If he was here to blow his horn
 He'd bring you out, I know.

But, Mary, if you won't have me,
 And will have Mr Brown,
I guess as how there's other gals
 That's wide awake in town.
But one thing you had ought to know
 Before I turn my back,
That is, that Prudence Pattingale
 Gin your Reub. Brown the sack.

Wit and Sentiment.

The Stump Tailed Cow.

A good many years ago, a man stole a cow from Morristown, New Jersey, and drove her to Philadelphia for sale. She was a common cow enough, except she had lost all her tail but about six inches. The thief, fearing that by the shortness of her tail he might be traced, had procured in some way, probably from a slaughter-house, another cow's tail, which he fastened so ingeniously to the short tail, that it could not be seen that it had not originally grown there.

As soon as the Jerseyman missed his cow, he set off for Philadelphia, thinking she would be probably carried there for sale, and it happened that when he came to the ferry, he got into the same boat that was carrying over his cow, and the fellow who stole her. As it was natural that he should have his thoughts very much upon cows, he soon began to look at this one with very great attention. She was, he thought, very much like his cow. Her marks agreed wonderfully, and she had exactly the same expression of face, but then the expression of tail was so very different. It must be supposed that the new owner of the cow felt rather uncomfortable during the examination, for he soon saw that this was the person whose property he had stolen, and was very uneasy lest he should take hold of her tail, which he looked at so continually. Upon the whole he thought it best to divert his attention in some way, if possible, and therefore stepping up to him, he said:—

'Neighbor, that is a fine cow of mine, won't you buy her? You seem to know what a good cow is.'

'Oh, said the other, 'I've just had a cow stolen from me.'

'Well,' replied the thief, 'I'm sorry to hear they've gone to stealing cattle, but I'll sell off, and you could not better replace your loss than by buying this cow. I'll warrant she's as good as your's.'

'Why,' said the Jerseyman, 'she was exactly like this one, only that mine had no tail to speak of; and if this one had not such a long tail, I'd swear it was my cow.'

'Everybody now began to look at the cow's tail, but the thief stood nearer to it than any body, and taking hold of it so as just to cover the splicing with his left hand, and with a jack knife in the right hand, pointing to the tail, he said:—

'And so, if this cow's tail was only this long, you'd swear she was your's?'

'That I would,' said the other, who began to be very much confused at the resemblance to his cow, except in this one particular, when the thief, with a sudden cut of his knife, took off the tail just about an inch above the splicing, and throwing it overboard bloody as it was, turned to the other and said:—

"Now swear it's your cow!"

The bewilderment of the poor man was now complete, but as he had seen the tail cut off, and saw the blood trickling from it, he could of course lay no claim to the animal from the shortness of the tail; indeed, here was proof positive that this was not his cow—so the thief, going over with him, sold the cow without any fear of detection.

(For full Schedule, see our Catalogue.)

The UNITED STATES JOURNAL contains sixteen large folio pages, ably edited and profusely illustrated. Price only 50 cents a year.

Our Catalogue contains over 1,000 of the most useful, entertaining and popular works of the day.

Any person sending us 50 cents or more, either for the JOURNAL or for Books at the lowest prices, is entitled to the same amount in any of the premiums of his own selection from the schedule. He is also entitled to extra Premiums amounting to $1, and extra Books or Journals amounting to $1 for every club of $10, thus receiving for $10 Books or Journals amounting to $11, and Premiums amounting to $11. The amount to prepay postage on the Premiums, should accompany each order.

Every reader is invited to form a club, and we wish to arrange with some persons at every Post Office to act as local agent and correspondent, who will be richly paid therefor.

Specimens and Catalogues sent free on application. Send on a few subscriptions at once, and select your premiums from the above, or when you receive the Catalogue.

GREAT DISCOVERY OF THE AGE! IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES, the great Substitute for Tobacco.

It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain norcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

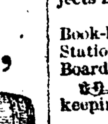

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches of Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT!—McCORMICK'S NEW GOODS HAVE ARRIVED AND ARE NOW BEING OPENED FOR INSPECTION AND SALE.

"Halloo, neighbor, I'm here on the ground again. Perhaps you recollect when I, last year, asked you to hold my horse a moment and tell me where the CHEAP STORE was. But it is different now. It reminds me a little of the campaign of 1840, when Gen. Harrison was elected President. You have only to go with the crowd and you will have no difficulty in finding McCORMICK'S STORE. From the excitement down the valley, and the quantity of goods I see carried away, they must be selling off very rapidly and very cheap."

"You are right, my friend; I would say to you, sir, go ahead and your anticipations will be fully realized. He has a very large and well selected assortment of Goods. He'll sell you a dress for fifty cents and give the trimmings into the bargain, I'm told, and all other goods in proportion."

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution, established by special Endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

—To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self Abuse, &c. &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self Abuse, and other diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), free of charge, on the receipt of two postage stamps for postage.

Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 S. Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT!—A NEW FIRM BROKE OUT IN A NEW PLACE.
M'LAIN & LEHR

Beg leave to inform their friends and the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that they have opened an

GROCERY & PROVISION STORE,

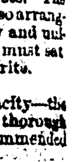

in the room formerly occupied by John Lehr, on Virginia street, next door to Patton's Hall, where they will be happy to serve all who may favor them with a call. Their stock is a large and select one, consisting of

Flour,	Feed,	Bacon,
Pork,	Sugar,	Coffee,
Tea,	Molasses,	Fish,
Salt,	Potatoes,	Fish Oil,
Fluid,	Camphene,	Alcohol,

Cigars and Tobacco.

As they purchase all their goods for the READY CASH, and sell for the same, persons desiring of purchasing anything in their line, will do well to give them a call, as they will sell at but a trifling advance on first cost. We ask no man to pay for anything but what he buys. Give us a trial and see if we won't make our words good. [jan 7-tf

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES.—The undersigned has just received from Philadelphia, North, Chase & North's celebrated Cooking Stoves for 1857.

THE ROYAL COOK

for Wood or Coal. This beautiful Cooking Stove challenges all competition for the exquisite style of ornament and perfect operation in all respects. The oven extends under the fire-box and the flues are so arranged that the whole oven surface will bake perfectly and uniformly. The slightest examination of this Stove must satisfy every one that it will become a universal favorite.

THE SEA SHELL

for wood or coal. The fire-box is of good capacity—the ash-box is deep—the oven is capacious and is a thorough baker. This stove is one that may readily be recommended for family use, in every particular.

All kinds of heating and parlor stoves constantly on hand. JOSEPH H. RUSH, April 16, '57-tf] Opposite the American House, Altoona.

COMPETITION IS THE LIFE OF TRADE.—Fully convinced of the truth of this saying, the subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that he has entered the field, by opening a

MERCHANT TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, in the room heretofore occupied by Michael Gallagher, immediately opposite the Superintendent's Office, where he will carry on the business as usual. He has just received an excellent assortment of

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES & VESTINGS,

suitable for working and dress suits, which he will make to order, on short notice and at prices which can not fail to satisfy. He has also received the LATEST STYLES of and feels confident that he can satisfy the most fastidious in this particular, and his clothing will be made as well as clothing can be made. In fine, he is determined that nothing shall be wanting on his part to render satisfaction to those who may favor him with their patronage.

FALL AND WINTER FASHIONS,

Altoona, Nov. 5-tf.] JOHN TALBOT.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just Published, Gratis, the 25th Thousand:

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by
B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 38 East 31st street, New York City.
May 6, 1858.

SPRING AND SUMMER FASHIONS.—JOHN O'DONNELL, Merchant Tailor, late of Hollidaysburg, desires to inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that he has leased the building two doors North of the Red Lion Hotel and one door South of Nagle's Saloon, on Main street, where he is now receiving his

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS,

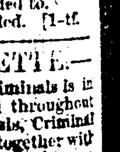

consisting in part of Cloths of all prices, Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, suitable for summer wear, Silk, Satin Velvet, Marseilles and all kinds of light Summer Vestings, in short, everything that may be called for, all of which he will make to order, on short notice, and on the most reasonable terms.

His long experience in the business, he thinks, will enable him to please all who may favor him with their orders.
April 1, 1858-1y.

MAP OF BLAIR COUNTY.—THE subscribers propose to publish a New Map of Blair County, Pennsylvania, from actual surveys, containing all Public Roads, Rail Roads, Canals, the actual localities of Villages, Post Offices, Houses of Worship, School Houses, Manufactories, Tanneries, Mills, Hotels, Stores, Farm Houses, names of Property Owners, &c.

Enlarged Plans of the Principal Villages, a Table of Distances, and a Business Directory, giving the name and business of each subscriber, will be engraved on the margin. The plotting will be to a suitable scale so as to make a large and ornamental Map, which will be colored and mounted in the best style, and delivered to subscribers at $5 per copy. SAMUEL GEIL,
April 15, 1858. ISAAC O. FREED.

G. W. KESSLER—PRACTICAL DRUGGIST, respectfully announces to the citizens of Altoona and the public generally, that he still continues the Drug business, on Virginia street, where he keeps constantly on hand, for sale, Wholesale and Retail, DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, OILS, VARNISHES and DYE-STUFFS.

By strict attention to business, and a desire to render satisfaction to all as regards price and quality, he hopes to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Physicians and merchants supplied on reasonable terms, and all orders from a distance promptly attended to.

Physicians prescriptions carefully compounded. [1-tf.

NATIONAL POLICE GAZETTE.—This Great Journal of Crime and Criminals is in its Twelfth Year, and is widely circulated throughout the country. It contains all the Great Trials, Criminal Cases, and appropriate Editorials on the same, together with information on Criminal Matters, not to be found in any other newspaper.

☞ Subscriptions $2 per annum; $1 for six months, to be remitted by subscribers, (who should write their names and the town, county and State where they reside plainly.)
